GOLF

New Zealand is home to a stunning range of golf courses set in incredible locations. Located near snow-capped mountains or isolated coastal stretches (and in some cases both), New Zealand's courses provide not only superb natural backdrops for playing golf but the added bonus of breath-taking scenery.

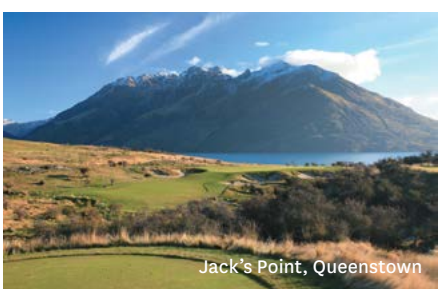

A COURSE TO SUIT EVERY PLAYER

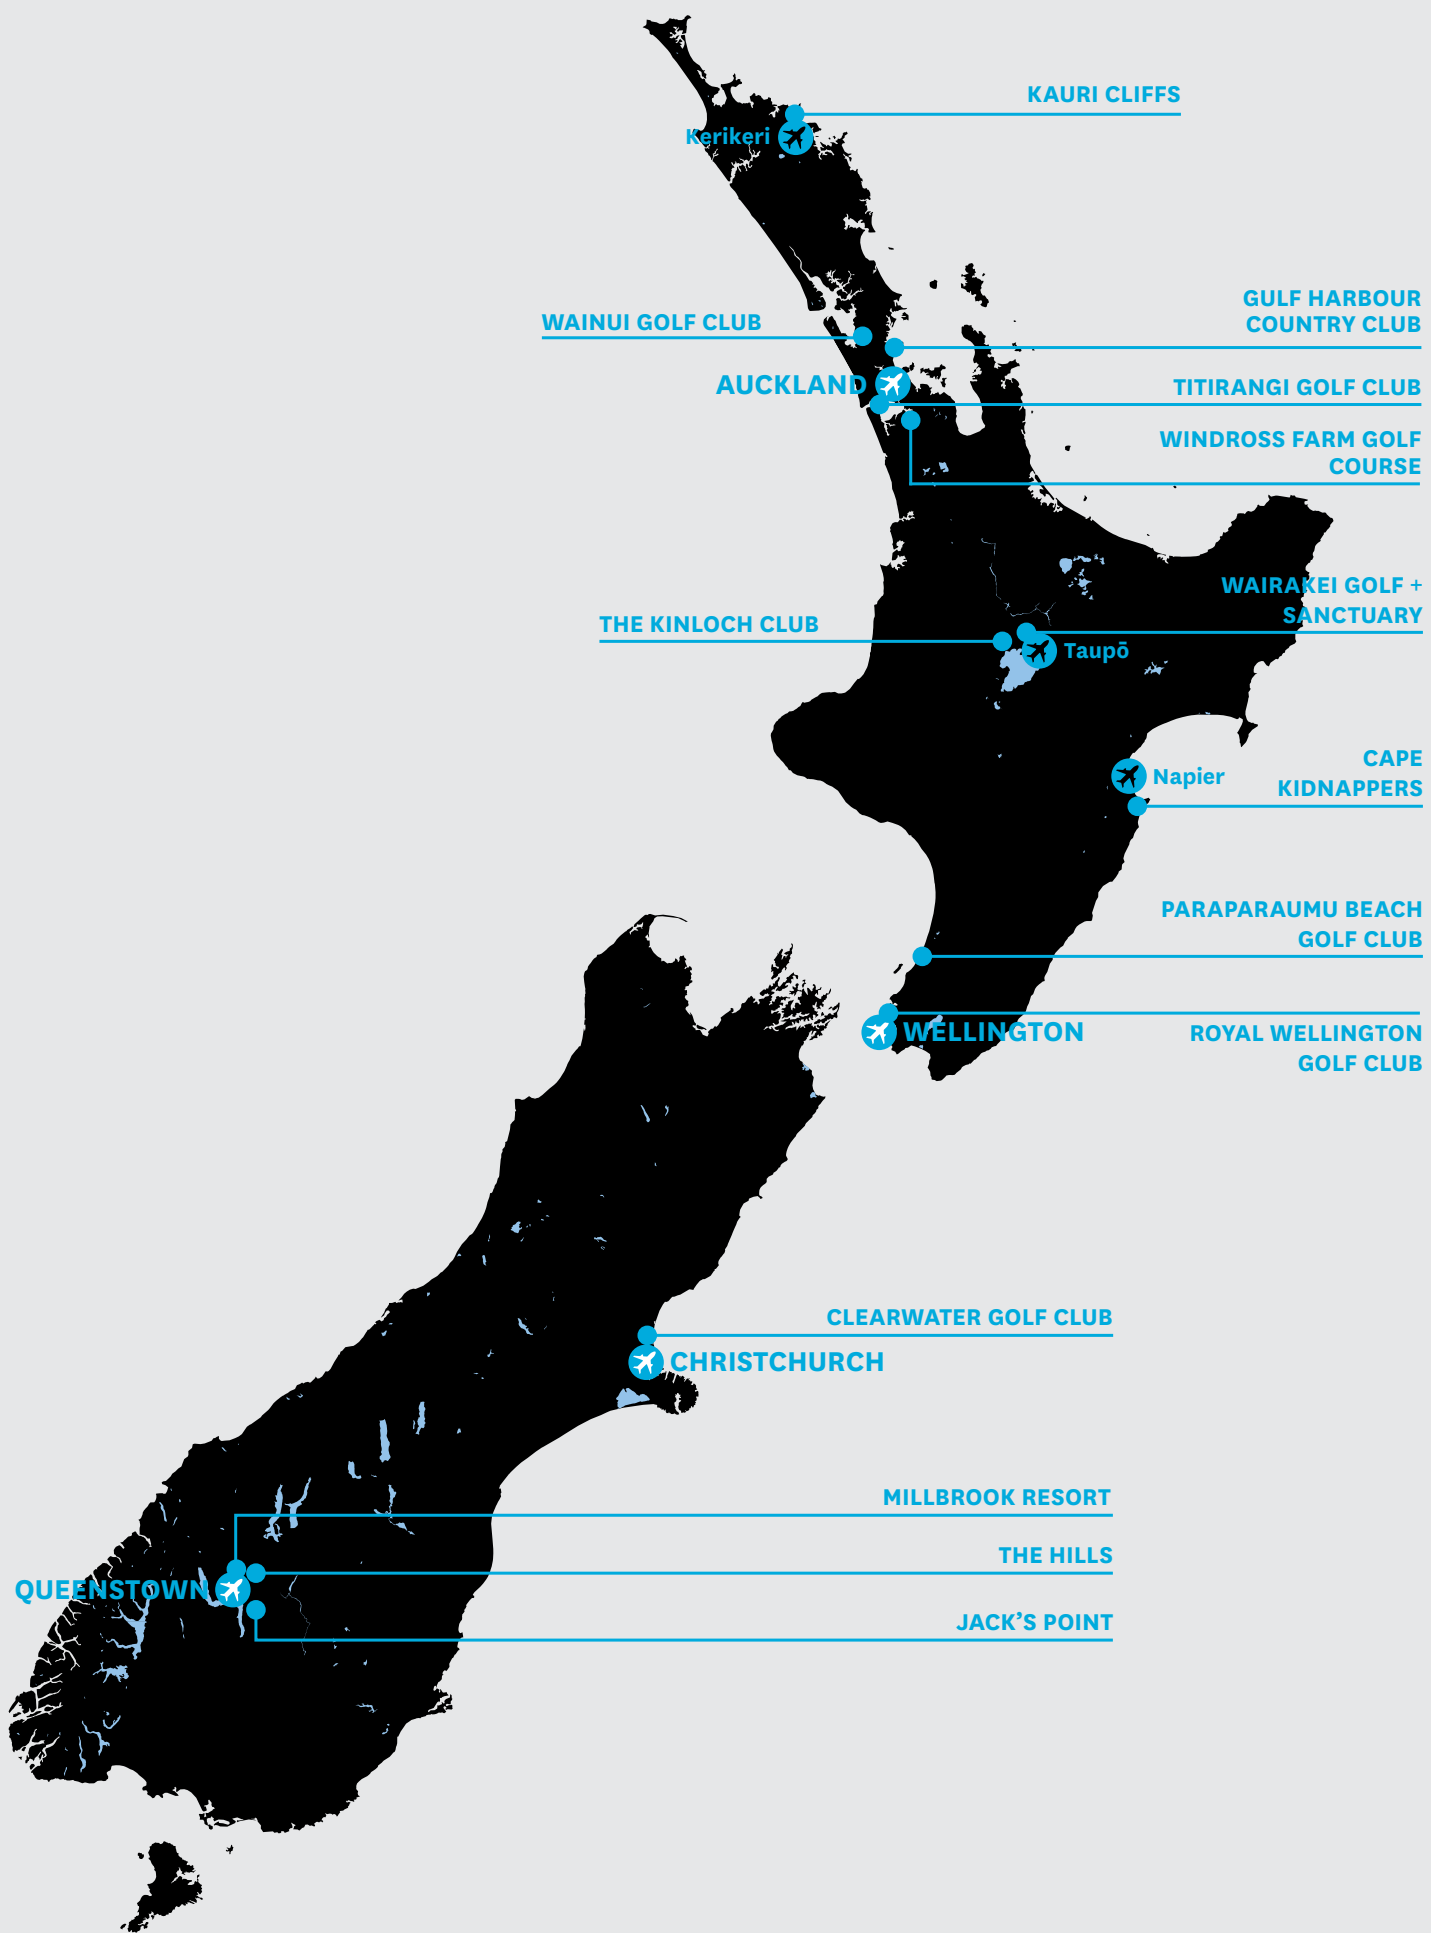

New Zealand has close to 400 golf courses. A selection of these have been hand-picked by industry experts and categorised into Marquee Courses and Experience Courses. Marquee golf courses are highly aspirational, with much international interest. Experience golf courses are clustered around the Marquee Courses and have a fantastic local vibe and charm.

CLIMATE & WHAT TO BRING

New Zealand enjoys a temperate climate with mild temperatures, moderate rainfall and many hours of sunshine.
