

ŌTAUTAHU CHRISTCHURCH

TOP TEN THINGS TO DO

Christchurch Adventure Park
Christchurch

Ōtautahi Christchurch is the South Island's largest city, the gateway to the Canterbury region and the perfect base for further exploring Te Waipounamu (the South Island), with an international airport providing easy access. The city boasts a blend of modern architecture alongside charming heritage buildings and the Ōtākaro Avon River meanders through its heart, surrounded by lush green spaces. It's a region rich in arts, culture, history, cuisine, and shopping. Plus nature is on the city's doorstep, with the mountains and the sea, all within a two-hour drive from the city.

JOIN A ZIP OR JET ADVENTURE

This region is the ultimate hub for adventure, offering quick access to the Southern Alps for hiking, skiing, and biking. Just 10 minutes from the city, the Christchurch Adventure Park boasts New Zealand's longest and highest zipline, as well as the southern hemisphere's largest mountain bike park. Take in sweeping vistas from the 1.8-kilometre chairlift and experience a thrilling dual zipline tour through the valley. Or, join on an exhilarating jet boat ride with Alpine Jet Thrills, cruising past the cliffs of the Southern Alps and witnessing waterfalls merging with the mighty Waimakariri River.

EXPLORE THE CITY'S SIGHTS

The best way to familiarise yourself with this pretty garden city, is to join a sightseeing tour. Jump on board a beautifully restored heritage Christchurch tram for an informative hop-on, hop-off tour to all the city's attractions. Float away on the Ōtākaro Avon River on Christchurch's most iconic experience, Avon River Punting. Glide over the city on a Christchurch Gondola trip up the Port Hills. Or, take off with Garden City Helicopters, or Ballooning Canterbury for prime sightseeing from above.

CLOSE ENCOUNTERS OF THE 'WILDLIFE' KIND

Meet some of Christchurch's cute and cuddly locals. Visit The International Antarctic Centre, next to the international airport to learn about the world of ice and snow, meet kōrora (little penguins), and even experience an indoor Antarctic storm. At Willowbank Wildlife Reserve you'll come face to face with some of Aotearoa New Zealand's native wildlife including the kiwi, kea parrot, tuatara reptile, kākā parrot, and rare takahē bird.

SOAK UP THE FRENCH CHARM AND NATURAL WONDERS OF AKAROA

Spend a day or two in picturesque Akaroa, a charming harbourside French-influenced town, just a 90-minute drive from Christchurch. Dive into the world of the tiniest and most elusive Hector's dolphins on a swim tour with Black Cat Cruises, or a harbour cruise with Akaroa Dolphins. Observe the unique variant of kororā (little penguins): the white-flipped penguins, of Pōhatu Penguins in their natural habitat, or returning from sea on an evening tour. Delight in the company of the adorable alpacas at Shamarra Alpacas, you can hand feed them and don't forget to take a selfie too!
