Introduction

New Zealand is considered one of the world’s most welcoming countries. Fun in New Zealand is about friends, family and welcoming visitors of all cultures. Feel the warmth of New Zealand's embrace as you visit the various prayer facilities available in New Zealand or enjoy our unique, halal-friendly cuisine. New Zealand food goes way beyond fish and chips and barbeques – our chefs have developed a distinct Pacific Rim cuisine. Expect to indulge in plenty of seafood, award-winning cheeses and of course, our famous lamb. You should also expect a laid-back, friendly atmosphere wherever you eat; we Kiwis love to keep things casual.

Tourism New Zealand worked closely with the Kiwi Muslim Directory to provide this guide, which gives an overview of the many Halal food options and prayer facilities available to make your stay in New Zealand a pleasant one.

The information provided in this guide is verified at the time of listing. The status of these outlets may change on an annual basis. Please always verify all food is Halal prior to making any purchase.
Acknowledgement

Tourism New Zealand is thankful for the continued support and guidance received from Federation of the Islamic Associations of New Zealand (FIANZ) and the Kiwi Muslim Directory. They have provided us with support and a detailed overview of both FIANZ and NZIDT certified establishments.

Through this collaboration we hope to offer our Muslim visitors a memorable visit to beautiful New Zealand. For more information on services for Muslim visitors, please visit fianz.co.nz and muslimdirectory.co.nz

ABOUT THE KIWI MUSLIM DIRECTORY
Since its launch in 2009, the Kiwi Muslim Directory’s vision has been to utilise web and print media to bridge the gap between the various Muslim organisations, centres, mosques, leaders, volunteers and the community.

As a continued vision to support the Muslim community, the Kiwi Muslim Directory worked closely with Tourism New Zealand to create a Halal food and prayer facilities guide that provides Muslim-friendly meal recommendations in the hopes of establishing New Zealand as a Muslim-friendly holiday destination.

Disclaimer: Kiwi Muslim Directory is not a Halal Certifying Authority. The Muslim Directory provides Halal food listings in good faith upon the basis of information provided by the Muslim retailers - verified at the time of listing and also Halal certified list. Hence we have included the names of the owners for you to ensure Halal status. We take no responsibility for the continuing accuracy of these listings until the next edition of the Kiwi Muslim Directory is launched and stress that you should verify all food is Halal prior making any purchase. We would also request the ummah (community) to inform us at info@muslimdirectory.co.nz if you find the ownership of any outlet has changed and/or if the outlet is no longer Halal. We will update this on the website accordingly.

Current listings in this guide are accurate as of February 2020.

North Island

Starting in the far north, where New Zealand’s journey to nationhood began, travel south through landscapes that blend magnificent beaches, sprawling farmlands and geothermal wonders. Māori culture is rich and ever-present in many parts of the North Island.

Discover the shopping, arts, dining and natural wonders of New Zealand cities. Explore the country’s fertile heartland of lush forests, rugged mountains, and steep gorges.

Get off the beaten track and you’ll be richly rewarded.

Enjoy shopping, dining and all that Auckland has to offer

Auckland is New Zealand’s largest, most diverse city, home to 1.5 million people, and the main transport hub. Imagine an urban environment where everyone lives within half an hour of beautiful beaches, hiking trails and enchanting islands. Add a sunny climate, a background rhythm of Polynesian culture and a passion for outstanding food and shopping, and you’re beginning to get the picture. More than just a city, Auckland is a whole region full of things to see and do. Best of all, with so many experiences close by it’s easy to hop from one adventure to the next.

Discover Northland – the spiritual birthplace of Aotearoa New Zealand is a cultural heartland in a beautiful sub-tropical landscape

Spectacular yet diverse coastlines, marine reserves, ancient forests and two oceans make Northland an unmissable destination. New Zealand’s northernmost region is a place of deep cultural and historical significance, where New Zealand's two peoples first came together, Māori and Pakeha (Europeans).

North of Auckland, the small northern city of Whangarei is an excellent place to relax into the laid back Northland lifestyle. A subtropical city on the edge of a beautiful harbour, Whangarei has museums, art galleries, shops and eateries. Journey northwards from Whangarei, to the coastal paradise of the Bay of Islands to the east, or west to the vast Hokianga Harbour where the golden sand dunes meet the ocean and ancient kauri trees rise to the sky. Travel through the Far North to Cape Reinga at the very tip of New Zealand, where two oceans collide in a place that is of deep spiritual significance to the Māori people.

Explore the Hamilton and Waikato region, well-known for its diverse scenery above and below ground

Just south of Auckland lies the Hamilton and Waikato region, well-known for its diverse scenery above and below ground. A myriad of adventure options await you; exploring underground caves, awesome black sand surf beaches and rolling green hills. These picture-perfect pastures were chosen for filming The Shire in The Lord of the Rings™ and The Hobbit™ trilogies. So, if you’re a Tolkien fan, drive east to Matamata and visit Hobbiton™ Movie Set Tours, the amazing Hobbit-sized village created for the movies.

The city of Hamilton offers plentiful shopping, award-winning eateries, international gardens, and is home to New Zealand’s only tea plantation, Zealong Tea. The Hamilton Gardens explores the relationship between people and plants in five themed garden collections. Here, you’ll find gardens inspired by places as diverse as India, Italy and China as well as a herb garden and an area devoted entirely to rhododendrons.

The Bay of Plenty has spectacular beaches, abundant food and wildlife

When the explorer James Cook arrived in 1769, he anchored off a great bay “full of plantations and villages” that he described as “a bay of plenty”. In this region of great natural abundance, the coastal city of Tauranga is a lovely place to enjoy fresh seafood, kiwifruit and avocados from dozens of surrounding orchards and gardens.

Explore further afield to meet the friendly locals, learn about Māori culture, experience a wildlife cruise or just simply relax in the hot pools and spas that you will find in many places.

Rotorua bubbles with mud pools, shooting geysers and natural hot springs

Experience the turbulent forces that formed New Zealand in Rotorua - one of the world’s most lively geothermal fields. This unique volcanic landscape, with its natural hot springs and fresh lake waters, offers plenty of options for holiday fun. Experience the exhilaration of luging, zorbing and zip-lining.

South of Rotorua, at beautiful Lake Taupō, you can go fishing or discover the magnificent Māori rock carvings at Mine Bay on a scenic boat trip or kayaking excursion. The forests and beaches surrounding the lake offer hiking and mountain biking for all levels of experience.

Spectacular highs and lows in Taranaki and Whanganui

On the North Island’s western tip, Mt Taranaki’s perfect cone rises from the green fertile lowlands below. In New Plymouth, Te Kainga Marire has featured on Around the World in 80 Gardens. Te Kainga Marire is Māori for ‘the peaceful encampment’. The predominantly native garden weaves subtle textures and colours from quirky forms into an harmonious whole, including lush ferns, wetland plants, and alpine treasures.

Whanganui has its own distinctive wilderness landscape of river valleys rising to steep slopes, razor-sharp ridges and dense cover of native forest. This is backcountry New Zealand where you can take to the waters on a guided tour, follow the trails or listen to the birds in the trees - at night it’s even possible to hear the call of the North Island brown kiwi.

Palmerston North bustles with regional charm, amidst a rural outdoors

Palmerston North City in the Manawatu region is an orderly university town with a cosmopolitan population that includes a significant number of international students. The town is built on the banks of the Manawatu River and laid out around a beautiful inner city park with public art, boutique shops and art galleries.

Off the beaten track – but not far from anywhere – the countryside has an abundance of things to see and do in a natural rural playground. Book a farm stay and visit Feilding on a Friday morning to taste your way through the Farmers’ Market of local produce.

Wellington, The coolest little capital in the world. - Lonely Planet

Wellington - the last stop before the South Island - sits on statuesque hills rising from a huge natural harbour. Renowned for its arts, heritage, culture and popular waterfront precinct, it is also home to the Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa. The Wellington Botanic Garden and cable car offer amazing views over the city, or relax at Oriental Bay, Wellington’s golden-sand inner-city beach.

Wellington is known as the culinary capital of New Zealand with some of the best cafés and restaurants New Zealand has to offer. Don’t miss the chance to settle into a friendly café to sample the coffee and watch the locals go by, or travel over the Rimutaka Hills to the nearby food and wine havens of Greytown and Martinborough.

South Island

The South Island hosts the purest natural landscapes you’ll ever experience. Here, the towering Southern Alps meet peaceful Sounds and rugged coastlines merge with sweeping plains. Let’s not forget the backbone of the island - the most down-to-earth locals you’ll ever meet.

Christchurch is a great gateway for any South Island adventure. Within easy range, choose from a coastal expedition north to Kaikoura’s wildlife wonders, a breath-taking train journey across the Southern Alps or a lakeside sojourn in a dark sky reserve, perfect for stargazing. Let the adventure begin.

Nelson is inspired by sunny days and fertile soils

On the northern tip of the South Island, Nelson Tasman is a region that is blessed with a sunny climate and fertile river valleys. The seas surrounding Nelson are the source of some of New Zealand’s finest seafood, and the sunny coastal climate produces grapes for wine, fresh fruit and produce.

The Marlborough Sounds are the sea-going gateway to the South Island and a natural coastal paradise. Get up close to abundant wildlife such as dolphins, seals, and blue penguins and listen to the chorus of unique native birdlife in the forests. Succulent New Zealand green-lipped mussels are in abundance, along with blue cod and other fine sea foods.

Immerse in unique and exciting experiences in Queenstown and Wanaka

Queenstown, in the southern South Island, is a lively year-round tourist destination, rated internationally as one of the world’s top holiday spots. Known as an ‘adventure capital’, experience exciting adventure activities such as jet boating, bungy jumping and skydiving amidst some of New Zealand’s most spectacular natural scenery. Queenstown visitors can spend the morning in the mountains, the afternoon exploring forest trails and river valleys, and dine al fresco by the lakeside come nightfall.

Wanaka, gateway to Mt Aspiring National Park and the precious Te Wāhipounamu World Heritage Area, has a spectacular landscape of soaring mountains, alpine lakes and rivers. The laid-back lakeside town draws visitors year-round; Autumn is particularly beautiful as the hills and vineyards take on the fiery hues of gold, orange and red – backgroundering the biennial Southern Lakes Festival of Colour.

Enjoy close encounters with rare wildlife and soak up Dunedin’s infectious city vibe

Dunedin has a rich Scottish heritage, historic architecture, and is home to more than a century old Larnach Castle Garden. The gardens reflect the owner’s interest in New Zealand plants and in their southern hemisphere relatives, with a unique collection of plants seldom seen elsewhere. Set at an altitude of 300 metres in the castle grounds on the Otago Peninsula, it boasts a true sense of place.

Don’t miss the drive out to the Otago Peninsula for endless views and the spectacular beaches. Nestled at the top of Taiaroa Head is the Royal Albatross Centre, the only place in the world on the mainland where you can view Northern Royal Albatross in their natural habitat. On Dunedin’s doorstep you will also find the world’s rarest penguin colony.

To experience scenic contrasts, head north to Waitaki and Oamaru for windswept coastlines and emerald plains bordered by towering mountains. Marvel at the ancient and curious Moeraki boulders on the seaside or spot the blue penguins and Hector’s dolphins playing in the waves. Admire Oamaru’s grand Whitestone architecture in the heritage precinct, and hire a bike if you’re keen to follow the Alps to Ocean cycle trail which goes all the way to majestic Aoraki Mount Cook National Park.

Southland offers rugged scenery, native wildlife, and stand out local produce

Southland’s largest centre is Invercargill. If you’re a garden lover you must visit Queens Park and its 80 hectares of tree-lined walkways and diverse gardens. This city is the home of warm ‘southern hospitality,’ so plan to rest a while.

Half an hour’s drive south of Invercargill is the fishing port of Bluff, known for its fabulous seafood; this is the original place to taste world-famous Bluff oysters. If you like to get away from practically everything and enjoy some bird watching, catch a ferry across Foveaux Strait to Stewart Island. New Zealand’s southernmost outpost is a haven for native birds and your best opportunity to see the iconic kiwi in its natural habitat.
