GETTING AROUND

- New Zealand has an extensive domestic air network. Book well in advance for the best airfares.
- Trains operate in some cities and there are a range of scenic and world-class train journeys.
- Passenger ferries connect the North and South Island. The journey between Wellington and Picton takes approximately three and a half hours.
- Self-drive is an excellent way to explore New Zealand. Varied landscapes and dramatic geographical features are in close proximity. Most international rental vehicle companies have depots throughout New Zealand.

  It is important to familiarise yourself with New Zealand’s unique driving conditions, road rules and drivers licence requirements. Find out more at drivesafe.org.nz

NEW ZEALAND CURRENCY

- The New Zealand dollar is the official currency.
- All major credit cards are accepted.
- Automated Teller Machines (ATMs) are widely available.
- International credit cards and ATM cards will work as long as they have a four-digit PIN encoded.
- Tipping is not obligatory and restaurants do not add service charges to their bills.
